

Beach cleanup near Rostock Harbour (Germany)

A polluted beach near the Rostock harbour was cleaned up within the framework of the EU-wide Ocean Initiatives programme against marine litter pollution through beach, lake, river and submarine clean-ups, taking place from 22nd to 25th March. Over 30 people participated in this event in Rostock to clean a 300m long coastal section during 90 minutes. The campaign was initiated by the Surfrider Foundation Europe and conducted by several stakeholders.

Facts

Place / Location	Germany
Commencement Date	24 March 2012
Duration	13:00-15:00
Theme	Mitigation, Awareness (Cross-cutting)
Type of Initiative	Campaign
Initiated by	Surfrider Foundation Europe
Involved Stakeholders	BeachedArt by Anke Paap (Anke Paap is an artist making art from beach litter), EUCC-The Coastal Union Germany, public
Funding/Financial Support	No
Success Rate	Very Successful
Case Study prepared by	Matthias Mossbauer, EUCC-The Coastal Union Germany, mossbauer@eucc-d.de
Submitted by	EUCC-D

Available documentation and further information

<http://www.initiativesoceanes.org/index.php?lang=2>

<http://www.eucc-d.de>

MARLISCO is a FP7 project funded by the European Commission.

The views and opinions expressed in this publication are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Commission.

back to overview

MARLISCO is a FP7 project funded by the European Commission.

The views and opinions expressed in this publication are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Commission.

